BIOGRAPHY

Hezron is a Jamaican-born singer, songwriter, and global soul storyteller whose music blends roots influences, soul, and R&B through emotionally rich songwriting and a powerful, unmistakable voice. Raised in Moy Hall, St. James, Jamaica, and now based in Kingston, his work is grounded in lived experience and cultural heritage while resonating deeply with audiences drawn to story-driven music.

With a catalog that includes internationally recognized songs such as So In Love, Can't Come Between, Taxi Driver, Save the Children, and Man on a Mission, along with collaborations featuring Shaggy, Beenie Man, and Busy Signal, Hezron has built a body of work that connects across borders and generations. His performances—often intimate and deeply expressive—highlight his ability to bridge cultures through song.

Named by Grammy.com as one of the Artists Shaping Contemporary Reggae, Hezron has toured across Africa, Canada, and Europe, steadily building a reputation for captivating live performances. On stage, he offers more than entertainment—his shows are immersive experiences rooted in storytelling, soul, and shared humanity.

"I make music that speaks from the heart and finds its way home in others."
